

2

nd

HUMAN CAPITAL REPORT

Finland is the second-best performing country in the world in human capital potential, according to the World Economic Forum. The report evaluates levels of education, skills and employment to rank how well countries are using their human capital.

Source:
Human Capital Report 2017

