

There are many female decision-makers in Finnish politics

All the highest political positions in Finland have been held by women: President of the Republic, Prime Ministers, Minister of Finance, Minister of Foreign Affairs, Minister of Defence and Speaker of the Parliament.

40%

The share of women
MPs elected in Finnish parliamentary elections
has remained at a steady 40 percent level.

