Finland’s universities are among the highest performing in the world, when countries’ levels of economic development are taken into account, according to Universitas 21 Ranking of National Higher Education Systems.

Source: Universitas 21, 2020