

6TH MOST TRANSPARENT COUNTRY

Finland is the 6th most transparent country in the world with open business and government practices and well-distributed political power. Finland is one of the least corrupt countries in the world and among the world's strongest democracies and most affluent nations.

Source: U.S. News & World Report, Y&R's BAV Group and Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania 2020

