

1ST HUMAN CAPITAL REPORT

Finland is the best-performing country in the world when it comes to human capital potential, according to the World Economic Forum. The report ranks countries on how well they are using their human capital, by evaluating the levels of education, skills and employment.

Source: Human Capital Report 2016

